

I am outraged at Sinclair Broadcasting forcing their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary just days before the election. This is one example of the dangers of media consolidation.

Sinclair, by using public airwaves free of charge, is obligated by law to serve the public interest. It is not in the interest of the public to air "Stolen Honor" as news, and is one-sided, and a political ploy.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. As guardian of the airways, it is your obligation to look carefully at what Sinclair Broadcasting is doing.

Thank you.
